

Date: 8/9/22

Dear parents,

Greetings from Blossom Public school and Jr.college ( New )!

As you are aware about the Periodic test II ( Term one exam) commencing from next week.

Find the details below...

We have already shared the portion and time table with you.

We request all the students to be present during the exam.

No absentees will be entertained, or exam would be reconducted in any circumstances.

Pay the school and transport fees before the exam

As usual hall tickets will be issued by the class teachers by Monday 12th September '22

Students should carry the print of the hall tickets with them on exam days without which they would not be permitted to write the exam.

They should be in school uniform only.

Late comers will not be allowed, hence ensure that your child is present before the time in school.

Students should carry all the required stationary of their own.

Malpractices will be dealt very strictly.

Ensure that your child studies every day and seriously.

Happy Examination

Regards
